A word from the directors...

Footloose. When we first came to the realization that this movie-turned-rock musical was the ideal choice for this year's musical, we were less than enthusiastic. We knew that it was the ideal choice for our current troupe of players because it offered a contrast to our past several musicals, provided an opportunity for our entire company to enhance their dance abilities, had a number of featured roles that exhibited many students' musical and acting skills, and boasted a pop/rock score that is a blast to sing. However, the original Broadway adaptation was not well received, and the show is widely regarded as sub-par by some in the professional theatre community. Thankfully, a show that began with mixed emotions has grown on us — and we feel foolish (for allowing past perceptions to color our experience) and thankful (for the opportunity to create this fantastic show). Note to self: Never allow past opinion to spoil your present reality. Such is PV Theatre's Footloose.

As we have worked on this show over the past several months, some basic themes have come to the forefront, and we caught ourselves falling in love with the people and the story that lie at the heart of this show. Footloose is not a jukebox musical with a simplistic plot, or a flimsy storyline strung between rock anthems. There is a powerful story to connect to: a tale of people having their beliefs challenged and coping with change, loneliness and frustration.

Many of us could identify with Ren & Ethel who were transplanted into a new, strange situation with different rules and an insular community 'code' to crack. The idea of being (or feeling like you are) "different" is not unusual to any of us. There are moments in each of our lives when we can identify with the themes of loss, gossip, and xenophobia that are at the core of this show. The characters on the stage may not feel familiar — they don't share our social or cultural landscape, but their stories of survival, coping, and adjustment play out with the same honesty and heart.

Often, the conservative values presented by the residents of Bomont are upheld as righteous, but that is simply a mask — they stem from deep-seated insecurity and fear. Ren and Shaw play out those feelings on our stage, but in the end, acceptance triumphs — and a new future is created. May our futures all look so bright.

Dylan Riley (s ounds cenic Construction) is a freshman who loves being on crew, loves learning about sound and scenic construction, and loves everything about PV Theatre.

Rebecca Riley (Master Carpenter) is sad to say that this is her last show with PV Theatre. She has participated in all of the shows at PV since she entered high school, and regrets none of them. She would like to thank her mother for driving her to and from crew for the past four years, and would like to thank the Lupfers and the Burgers for dealing with her antics. She has loved every minute of being with her building crew, and will miss all of them dearly.

Lauren Snieckus (Publicity/Makeup) is a freshman who is excited to be participating in her first p oduction at Pascack Valley. Ashley Steimle (s cenic Painting) is a freshman working on her first PV p oduction. She has worked on producing scenery for the plays at George White MS. She likes to paint and is always doodling.

Frank Tancredi (s cenic Construction) is participating in his first ear on crew and he is excited to be working on the play.

Brianne Velardi (Publicity/s cenic Décor) is a senior who is so sad that Footloose — as well as her time in PV Crew — will be presently coming to an end. After 4 years of working behind the scenes, she has many new friends and had lots o' shenanigans with them. She's going to dearly miss all of her crewmates and cast friends next year. She thanks the Lupfers and the Burgers for all that they've done for her and wishes the cast and crew the best of luck in Footloose and in the future!

This is his fourth show with PV Theatre, and his third on stage crew. Locally, Allan has also played the parts of Jeffrey in Godspell, Schlomo in Fame, and Horton the Elephant in s eussical the Musical. He would like to thank the Lupfers for giving him the opportunity to be a part of the activity he loves most — theatre.

Amanda Williamson (Guest s ervices/s cenic Construction) is a senior here at PV and has been part of the theatre program since her freshman year. Though she is sad that this is her last show with PV Theatre, she is excited to go off to college next year. She wishes everyone in the cast and crew good luck on this show and future performances.

Becky Zuniga (s cenic Painting) is a senior at PV who has been a part of stage crew since her freshman year. After she graduates high school, Becky plans on majoring in fine arts in pursuit of becoming a secondary school art teacher. Besides art, Becky enjoys kitties, sleeping, and being a fi ework. She wishes the best to the Lupfers and the whole cast and crew.
