A Word from the Directors

Welcome to Pascack Theatre!

We are thrilled to present the inaugural performance of Pascack Theatre, uniting the talent and passion of Pascack Hills and Pascack Valley High Schools. This ambitious merger required a great deal of planning and the unwavering support of our students, families, and the community. We hope this weekend's performances reflect their dedication to this new venture.

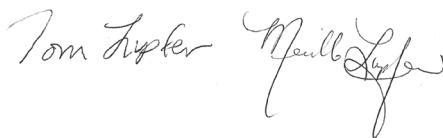

A special thank you to Dr. Sarah Bilotti, Mr. Tim Wieland, and Mr. John Puccio for their visionary leadership. Working through renovation projects in both school auditoriums could have created a difficult situation, but with their support and guidance it has become a beautiful series of opportunities for all of us. We are so grateful.

The original version of When This Is Over was created by Company3, a UK-based youth theatre company, as a response to the COVID pandemic. Five sixteen-year-olds shared their stories with one another and their production team, who crafted their script. It had its premiere in 2022.

Our version of When This Is Over was created with the input of almost 40 students, aged fourteen to eighteen, whose experience of the pandemic (and all that came before and has happened since) was quite different from the original company's. Our script reflects those differences in its structure, content, and themes, driven entirely by the input of the Pascack Hills and Pascack Valley students' work over weeks of devising. Instead of having a rehearsal process focused on memorizing lines and staging, the company spent a great deal of time generating content. We have played games, done writing exercises, improvised, made and shared presentations, scripted and workshopped scenes, and talked with each other. A whole lot.

The essential, unifying elements of the play—common to the original production and ours—are the questions it explores. How did we get here, to where we are right now? and How do we take on what happens from here? They take us on a journey across the performers' past, present, and imagined futures. The answer our students arrived at is simple: Together. We got here, and we go forward, together.

Because of this, this play invites the full participation of you, as a member of the audience. When the actors reach out to connect with you—to include you in their stories, their memories, and their visions of what happens when this is over—we hope you will join them on their journeys. It has been a true joy and pleasure for us to do so.

Alyssa Dumont (Construction/Paint Crew) is a freshman who's excited to start her first production as a high schooler. Theatre is a big hobby of hers and she hopes to continue it through and past high school. Kel Fan (Crew) is a sophomore at Pas-cack Hills and part of the crew, and this show will be his third production. His past shows include She Kills Monsters (Poster Design) and Cinderella. Outside of school and theater, Kel is a part of several projects and likes to create illustrations and comics—namely, several fanzines for charity, and a bimonthly fan-comic. The Directors

Merielle Lupfer (Director/CHAMP Crew Supervisor) is a 2001 alumna of PVHS who holds a degree in Educational Theatre from New York University. She spends the school day teaching fifth-grade Language Arts at George G. White Middle School in Hillsdale. Returning to helm the high school theatre program that was her initial training ground in performance and design, and doing it alongside her husband/favorite collaborator, has been a dream come true for the past 17 years. Though she sometimes jokes that her work is mostly “doing skits with kids,” Merielle believes strongly in the importance of the arts in students’ lives and is grateful for the privilege of creating art with young people for a living. Among the parts she’s enjoyed playing on stage are Helena in A Midsummer Night’s Dream and Amy in Company, but Merielle’s favorite role is Mama to her twin daughters. Now ten years old and in fifth grade, they love reading, making music, being with family, and working on PV Theatre shows as official members of the CHAMP crew.

Tom Lupfer (Director/Producer/Technical Supervisor) has helmed PV Theatre for 18 years, and is thrilled to mark his first production as director for Pascack Theatre. He loves collaborating with his wife Merielle, with whom he shared the 2022 MSU Foxy Award for Best Direction of a Musical.

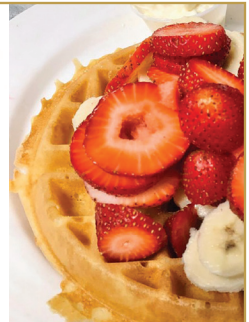

Tom is a Drama Teacher/Director at Glenfield MS, a Visual & Performing Arts Magnet in Montclair, NJ. This May, his students will perform Annie. Tom co-produced the documentary film Ceremony For This Time (2015 Montclair Film Festival), chronicling the creation of a performance piece celebrating the power of performing arts in education. He is thrilled that his ten-year-old twin daughters love going to rehearsal almost as much as he does. MA: Educational Theatre, NYU; Educational Leadership, Montclair State. BA: Theatre, Susquehanna University.
