DON'T DRINK THE WATER

by Woody Allen

Production Directed

Don't Drink the Water is presented by special arrangement with SAMUEL FRENCH, INC.

A Word from the Directors...

Don't Drink the Water marked Woody Allen's Broadway debut when it opened in November 1966, spoofing the very real Cold War tensions between the United States and Communist States that were ever-present at the time.

Then, as now, the United States was afraid of an 'unknown' enemy – a threat that could strike at any time or place – communists then, terrorists now. As Krojack demonstrates in our play, fear was a weapon. In the case of this play, comedy serves as the foil to that weapon. The cartoonish interactions between the Hollander family and the fumbling, bumbling Axel Magee help us laugh at our world.

Good comedic characters present us to ourselves – and, of course, we have to laugh. Though almost 50 years old, Don't Drink the Water feels very timely. We see familiar people and situations – because comedy surrounds us every day. Woody Allen just made it easier to laugh at.

THE CREW

Tristan Bournot (Crew) is very excited to be working on the fall play this year. It has been a great experience for him and is happy to keep working with the theatre. He loves lighting and is happy that every year he learns more and more. He loves the fact that he helps out with the lighting and wishes that one day he could design the lighting of a whole show. This is his fifth show working with the theatre and crew and doesn't regret one second of joining it. He is excited for the more shows to come. He wishes everyone good luck even though he knows they don't need it.

Christine Favorito (Crew Chief) is a senior and this is her sixth show being on crew. Her past PV shows include: Footloose, The Laramie Project, and Ten Years Later, The Pajama Game, Romeo & Juliet and Curtains. Some of her favorite crew activities include building stairs (right-side up), hiding in the dark, organizing and re-organizing cabinet 5 and carrying around a teeny-tiny tape measure. Christine would like to thank her fellow thirds for (attempting) to keep her sane throughout all the madness. Break legs!

Melissa Gargiulo (Co-costume mistress/prop mistress) Melissa is a junior and this is her fifth show with PV Theatre, even though it's only her third show working backstage. She has had a great time working with the costumes and props helping the show come together. This has been yet another wild adventure that comes with every show but she wouldn't trade it for the world. Break a leg everyone!

Nina Henry (Costume Crew) This is Nina's third year of participating in PV Theatre. She is working with the wonderful costume crew. She hopes that the cast breaks legs!

Molly Henry (Costume Crew) Molly is a junior this year and has performed in several PV Theater productions. Don't Drink the Water is the first show where she has enjoyed working offstage assembling props and costumes. She hopes you enjoy the show, and wishes the performers and run crew luck!

Paxton Horvath (Crew) As a freshman, this is Paxton's first show with PV Theater. Previously, she worked as a crew member in middle school and is now very excited to be working with this crew on Don't Drink The Water. She would like to wish the cast and crew a great show. Break a leg!

Lexis Horvath (Crew) A junior, this is Lexi's fifth show with PV Theatre. However, this is her first time on construction crew, and she is very excited to be learning from and working with the rest of crew on this production of Don't Drink the Water. In the past, Lexi has been a cast member in shows like The Laramie Project, and Ten Years Later and Romeo & Juliet, and has enjoyed gaining experience on all sides of the production process. As usual, the process of putting the show together has been tremendously fun, and the learning invaluable. She can't wait for the next show, and to the rest of PV Theatre, she'd just like to say: break a leg!

Allison Kuhl (Crew) To support her friends who have been in crew, Allie has seen every show since her freshman year, but this is her first time participating in one. She is excited to be involved with PV Theatre even though it can only be for a year.

Bess Lorman (Crew) Bess is a senior. This is her fourth show working back stage building cool things that you may or may not see today. Bess enjoys hanging with her crew buds. Her favorite crew activity is the table saw.

Lauren Snieckus (Master Carpenter) Lauren is a senior. Throughout the past six shows, she has participated in various crew activities including but not limited to: swearing like a sailor, internal (and external) screaming, eye-rolling, nearly amputating a finger with the jigsaw, and eating snacks backstage. She'd like to thank all her crew buds for putting up with her rapid loss of sanity as she blindly makes her way through senior year. Break legs.

Ian Terry (Crew) is a junior and this is his third year working on the crew for PV Theatre. He helped construct the sets for last fall's Romeo & Juliet and last spring's Curtains. Ian is also a member of the lunch choir. Ian wishes everyone in the cast and crew to break a leg, but not on anything that he helped build.
